A returning Queensland resident may be required to quarantine dependent on the requirements under the Border restrictions Direction.
- Note: a Queensland resident returning from working interstate is not a specialist worker performing an essential activity.*

Quarantine conditions

22. If a maritime crew member is required to quarantine in Queensland under this protocol or the Border restrictions Direction for 14 days or more:
- a. the maritime crew member will be directed by an Emergency Officer (Public Health) to quarantine at government nominated accommodation for 14 days.
 - b. the maritime crew member is liable for the costs of the accommodation which may be recovered as a debt by the State.

Note: If the quarantine period is going to be less than 14 days then the maritime crew member may quarantine in nominated premises.

Note: If the maritime crew member is not paying the invoice for the costs of the accommodation personally, it is the responsibility of the maritime crew member to give the invoice to the ship's agent or other person for prompt payment.

23. A maritime crew member who quarantines in government nominated accommodation will be tested for COVID-19 in accordance with the Queensland Health testing regime. If a maritime crew member refuses a COVID-19 test when requested to do so by an Emergency Officer (Public Health) under a testing regime, then the maritime crew member will be required to quarantine for a further period of 10 days.
24. Despite the quarantine requirements under this protocol, a maritime crew member may leave quarantine, using pre-arranged, dedicated, privately chartered, socially distanced transport to travel directly to:
- an approved airport to depart Australia (no domestic connecting flights); or
 - a vessel, to join the vessel for an intended crew changeover under this protocol.

Reasons to leave quarantine

25. A maritime crew member who is in quarantine may leave the quarantine location for the following purposes:
- to obtain essential medical care or medical supplies, where alternative delivery arrangements are not reasonably practicable; or
 - to avoid injury or illness, or escape a risk of harm; or
 - in the event of an emergency situation; or
 - to conduct essential vessel functions.
26. A maritime crew member who leaves quarantine for any of these purposes must:
- wear personal protective equipment, except in the event of an emergency situation; and
 - use private transport, including a taxi or rideshare; and
 - restrict interactions with the Queensland community, if any.

Transit

27. A maritime crew member who enters Queensland to join or disembark a vessel under this protocol, must wear a protective face mask and observe social distancing practices while in transit.
28. A maritime crew member who fails to wear a protective face mask when transiting under this protocol may be deemed to be operating outside of the protocol and directed to government nominated accommodation to complete 14 days of quarantine prior to joining the vessel.
