- (5) Parliament recognises and respects the role of employer and employee organisations in facilitating the operation of the workplace relations system.

 - (a) it is only a body corporate because it is or has been registered under this Act (whether before or after the commencement of this subsection); and
 - (b) it is not the case that some or all of the association's members are federal system employers.

Section 18B

18B Federally registrable employee associations

- (1) An association of employees is federally registrable if:
 - (a) it is a constitutional corporation; or
 - (b) some or all of its members are federal system employees.
- (3) An association of employees is not federally registrable if it has a member who is not one of the following:

 - (a) it is only a body corporate because it is or has been registered under this Act (whether before or after the commencement of this subsection); and
 - (b) it is not the case that some or all of the association's members are federal system employees.

18C Federally registrable enterprise associations

- (1) An enterprise association is an association the majority of the members of which are employees performing work in the same enterprise.
- (2) An enterprise association is federally registrable if:
 - (a) it is a constitutional corporation; or
 - (b) some or all of its members are federal system employees; or
 - (c) the employer or employers in relation to the relevant enterprise are constitutional corporations; or
 - (d) the relevant enterprise operates principally within or from a Territory; or
 - (e) the relevant enterprise is engaged principally in trade or commerce between Australia and a place outside Australia; or
 - (f) the relevant enterprise is engaged principally in trade or commerce among the States; or

- (3) An enterprise association is not federally registrable if it has a member who is not one of the following:

Section 18D

 - (ii) an employee who would be eligible for membership of the association;
 - (d) an officer of the association.
- (4) The persons specified for the purpose of paragraph (3)(b) are persons (other than employees) who:

 - (b) it does not satisfy paragraphs (b) to (k) of subsection (2).

18D Constitutional validity

Associations of employers

- (1) If the Parliament would not have sufficient legislative power to provide for the registration of a particular association of employers if:
 - (a) a particular class of employers mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (f) of the definition of national system employer in section 14 of the Fair Work Act were included when working out whether some or all of the association's members are federal system employers; that definition applies as if it did not include a reference to that class of employers.
- (2) If the Parliament would only have sufficient legislative power to provide for the registration of a particular association of employers if the membership of the association were entirely made up of one or more of the following:
 - (a) federal system employers;
 - (b) persons (other than employees) who carry on business and who would, if they were employers, be federal system employers;
 - (c) officers of the association;then, despite subsection 18A(1), the association is not federally registrable unless it is either a constitutional corporation or made up in that way.

Associations of employees

- (3) If the Parliament would not have sufficient legislative power to provide for the registration of an association of employees if:
 - (a) a particular class of individuals so far as they are employed, or usually employed, as described in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) of the definition of national system employer in section 14 of the Fair Work Act, by a federal system employer were included when working out whether some or all of the association's members are federal system employees;

the definition of federal system employee in section 6 applies as if it did not include a reference to that class of employees.

- (3A) If the Parliament would not have sufficient legislative power to provide for the registration of an association of employees if:
- (a) a particular class of individuals mentioned in paragraph (c) of the definition of federal system employee in section 6 were included in working out whether some or all of the association's members are federal system employees;
- that definition applies as if it did not include a reference to that class of employees.
- (4) If the Parliament would only have sufficient legislative power to provide for the registration of a particular association of employees if the membership of the association were entirely made up of one or more of the following:
- (a) federal system employees;
 - (b) persons specified in subsection 18B(4);
 - (c) officers of the association;
- then, despite subsection 18B(1), the association is not federally registrable unless it is either a constitutional corporation or made up in that way.

Enterprise associations

- (5) If the Parliament would only have sufficient legislative power to provide for the registration of an enterprise association if the membership of the association were entirely made up of one or more of the following:
- (a) federal system employees performing work in the relevant enterprise;
 - (b) persons specified in subsection 18C(4);
 - (c) officers of the association;

then, despite subsection 18C(2), the association is not federally registrable unless it is either a constitutional corporation or made up in that way.

Division 2—Registration criteria

19 Criteria for registration of associations other than enterprise associations

- (1) The FWC must grant an application for registration made by an association (other than an enterprise association) that, under section 18, may apply for registration as an organisation if, and only if:
 - (a) the association:
 - (i) is a genuine association of a kind referred to in paragraph 18(a) or (b); and
 - (ii) is an association for furthering or protecting the interests of its members; and
 - (b) in the case of an association of employees—the association is free from control by, or improper influence from, an employer or by an association or organisation of employers; and
 - (c) in the case of an association of employers—the members who are employers have, in the aggregate, throughout the 6 months before the application, employed on an average taken per month at least 50 employees; and
 - (d) in the case of an association of employees—the association has at least 50 members who are employees; and
 - (e) the FWC is satisfied that the association would conduct its affairs in a way that meets the obligations of an organisation under this Act and the Fair Work Act; and
 - (f) the rules of the association make provision as required by this Act to be made by the rules of organisations; and
 - (g) the association does not have the same name as that of an organisation or a name that is so similar to the name of an organisation as to be likely to cause confusion; and
 - (h) a majority of the members present at a general meeting of the association, or an absolute majority of the committee of management of the association, have passed, under the rules of the association, a resolution in favour of registration of the association as an organisation; and

- (i) the registration of the association would further Parliament's intention in enacting this Act (see section 5) and the object set out in section 3 of the Fair Work Act; and
- (j) subject to subsection (2), there is no organisation to which members of the association might belong or, if there is such an organisation, it is not an organisation:
 - (i) to which the members of the association could more conveniently belong; and
 - (ii) that would more effectively represent those members.

(2) If:

- (a) there is an organisation to which the members of the association might belong; and
- (b) the members of the association could more conveniently belong to the organisation; and
- (c) the organisation would more effectively represent those members than the association would;

the requirements of paragraph (1)(j) are taken to have been met if the FWC accepts an undertaking from the association that the FWC considers appropriate to avoid demarcation disputes that might otherwise arise from an overlap between the eligibility rules of the organisation and the eligibility rules of the association.

- (3) Without limiting the matters that the FWC may take into account in considering, under subparagraph (1)(j)(ii), the effectiveness of the representation of an organisation or association, the FWC must take into account whether the representation would be consistent with Parliament's intention in enacting this Act (see section 5) and the object set out in section 3 of the Fair Work Act.
- (4) In applying paragraph (1)(e), the FWC must have regard to whether any recent conduct by the association or its members would have provided grounds for an application under section 28 had the association been registered when the conduct occurred.

Section 20

- (5) The FWC must not, under this section, grant an application for registration of an association of employers or employees registered under a State or Territory industrial law if the association has a federal counterpart.

20 Criteria for registration of enterprise associations

- (1) The FWC must grant an application for registration made by an enterprise association that, under section 18, may apply for registration as an organisation if, and only if:
 - (a) the association:
 - (i) is a genuine association of a kind referred to in paragraph 18(c); and
 - (ii) is an association for furthering or protecting the interests of its members; and
 - (b) the association is free from control by, or improper influence from:
 - (i) any employer, whether at the enterprise in question or otherwise; or
 - (ii) any person or body with an interest in that enterprise; or
 - (iii) any organisation, or any other association of employers or employees; and
 - (c) the association has at least 20 members who are employees; and
 - (d) the FWC is satisfied that the association would conduct its affairs in a way that meets the obligations of an organisation under this Act and the Fair Work Act; and
 - (e) the rules of the association make provision as required by this Act to be made by the rules of organisations; and
 - (f) the association does not have the same name as that of an organisation or a name that is so similar to the name of an organisation as to be likely to cause confusion; and
 - (g) the FWC is satisfied that a majority of the persons eligible to be members of the association support its registration as an organisation; and

Section 20

- (h) a majority of the members present at a general meeting of the association, or an absolute majority of the committee of management of the association, have passed, under the rules of the association, a resolution in favour of registration of the association as an organisation; and
 - (i) the registration of the association would further Parliament's intention in enacting this Act (see section 5) and the object set out in section 3 of the Fair Work Act.
- (1A) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), if a person or body has an interest in the enterprise in question, the FWC may decide that, despite the interest, the association is free from control by, or improper influence from, the person or body.
- Note: The FWC could conclude that the association was free from control etc. by the person if, for example, the nature of the person's interest was not such as to give the person a major say in the conduct of the enterprise or if the person did not have a significant management role in the association.
- (2) In applying paragraph (1)(d), the FWC must have regard to whether any recent conduct by the association or its members would have provided grounds for an application under section 28 had the association been registered when the conduct occurred.

Section 21

Division 3—Prohibited conduct in relation to formation or registration of employee associations

21 Prohibited conduct—employers

- (2) An organisation, or an officer or member of an organisation, must not, for a prohibited reason, or for reasons that include a prohibited reason, take or threaten to take, any action whose aim, or one of whose aims, is to prejudice a person in the person's employment, or an independent contractor in the contractor's engagement.
- (3) Conduct referred to in subsection (2) is for a prohibited reason if it is carried out because the person has done, or has omitted to do, any act:

- (5) An organisation, or an officer or member of an organisation, must not impose, or threaten to impose, a penalty, forfeiture or disability of any kind on a member of the organisation because the member concerned does or proposes to do, for a prohibited reason, an act or omission referred to in subsection 21(3).

Section 23

23 Powers of Federal Court in relation to prohibited conduct

- (1) The Federal Court may, if the Court considers it appropriate in all the circumstances, make one or more of the following orders in respect of conduct that contravenes section 21 or 22:
 - (a) an order imposing on a person whose conduct contravenes that section a penalty of not more than:
 - (i) in the case of a body corporate—100 penalty units; or

- (2) An application for an order under subsection (1) may be made by:
 - (a) a person against whom the conduct is being, has been, or is threatened to be, taken; or
 - (b) any other person prescribed by the regulations.

24 Certain actions considered to be done by organisation or employer

- (1) For the purposes of this Division:
 - (a) action done by one of the following bodies or persons is taken to have been done by an organisation:
 - (i) the committee of management of the organisation;
 - (ii) an officer or agent of the organisation acting in that capacity;
 - (iii) a member or group of members of the organisation acting under the rules of the organisation;

- (iv) a member of the organisation, who performs the function of dealing with an employer on behalf of other members of the organisation, acting in that capacity; and
 - (b) action done by an agent of an employer acting in that capacity is taken to have been done by the employer.
- (2) Subparagraphs (1)(a)(iii) and (iv) and paragraph (1)(b) do not apply if:

- (3) In this section:
officer, in relation to an organisation, includes:
 - (a) a delegate or other representative of the organisation; and
 - (b) an employee of the organisation.

Division 4—Registration process

25 Applicant for registration may change its name or alter its rules

- (1) The FWC may, on the application of an association applying to be registered as an organisation, grant leave to the association, on such terms and conditions as the FWC considers appropriate, to change its name or to alter its rules:
 - (a) to enable it to comply with this Act; or
 - (b) to remove a ground of objection taken by an objector under the regulations or by the FWC; or
 - (c) to correct a formal error in its rules (for example, to remove an ambiguity, to correct spelling or grammar, or to correct an incorrect reference to an organisation or person).

Note: Paragraph (a)—in order for an organisation to comply with this Act, its rules must not be contrary to the Fair Work Act (see paragraph 142(1)(a) of this Act).

- (2) An association granted leave under subsection (1) may change its name, or alter its rules, even though the application for registration is pending.
- (3) Rules of an association as altered in accordance with leave granted under subsection (1) are binding on the members of the association:
 - (a) in spite of anything in the other rules of the association; and
 - (b) subject to any further alterations lawfully made.

26 Registration

- (1) When the FWC grants an application by an association for registration as an organisation, the General Manager must immediately enter, in the register kept under paragraph 13(1)(a), such particulars in relation to the association as are prescribed and the date of the entry.

Section 26A

- (2) An association is to be taken to be registered under this Act when the General Manager enters the prescribed particulars in the register under subsection (1).
- (3) On registration, an association becomes an organisation.
- (4) The General Manager must issue to each organisation registered under this Act a certificate of registration in the prescribed form.

Note: Certificates of registration issued under the Workplace Relations Act 1996 continue in force (see the Workplace Relations Legislation Amendment (Registration and Accountability of Organisations) (Consequential Provisions) Act 2002).

- (5) The certificate is, until proof of cancellation, conclusive evidence of the registration of the organisation specified in the certificate.
- (6) The General Manager may, as prescribed, issue to an organisation a copy of, or a certificate replacing, the certificate of registration issued under subsection (4) or that certificate as amended under section 160.

26A Validation of registration

If:

- (a) an association was purportedly registered as an organisation under this Act before the commencement of this section; and
- (b) the association's purported registration would, but for this section, have been invalid merely because, at any time, the association's rules did not have the effect of terminating the membership of, or precluding from membership, persons who were persons of a particular kind or kinds;

that registration is taken, for all purposes, to be valid and to have always been valid.

27 Incorporation

An organisation:

- (a) is a body corporate; and
- (b) has perpetual succession; and

Section 27

- (c) has power to purchase, take on lease, hold, sell, lease, mortgage, exchange and otherwise own, possess and deal with, any real or personal property; and
- (d) must have a common seal; and
- (e) may sue or be sued in its registered name.

Part 3—Cancellation of registration

28 Application for cancellation of registration

- (1) An organisation or person interested, or the Minister, may apply to the Federal Court for an order cancelling the registration of an organisation on the ground that:
- (a) the conduct of:
 - (i) the organisation (in relation to its continued breach of a modern award, an order of the FWC or an enterprise agreement, or its continued failure to ensure that its members comply with and observe a modern award, an order of the FWC or an enterprise agreement, or in any other respect); or
 - (ii) a substantial number of the members of the organisation (in relation to their continued breach of a modern award, an order of the FWC or an enterprise agreement, or in any other respect);has prevented or hindered the achievement of Parliament's intention in enacting this Act (see section 5) or of an object of this Act or the Fair Work Act; or
 - (b) the organisation, or a substantial number of the members of the organisation or of a section or class of members of the organisation, has engaged in industrial action (other than protected industrial action) that has prevented, hindered or interfered with:
 - (i) the activities of a federal system employer; or
 - (ii) the provision of any public service by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory or an authority of the Commonwealth or a State or Territory; or
 - (c) the organisation, or a substantial number of the members of the organisation or of a section or class of members of the organisation, has or have been, or is or are, engaged in industrial action (other than protected industrial action) that has had, is having or is likely to have a substantial adverse effect on the safety, health or welfare of the community or a part of the community; or

- (d) the organisation, or a substantial number of the members of the organisation or of a section or class of members of the organisation, has or have failed to comply with:
 - (i) an injunction granted under subsection 421(3) of the Fair Work Act (which deals with orders to stop industrial action); or
 - (ii) an order made under the Fair Work Act in relation to a contravention of Part 3-1 of that Act (which deals with general protections); or
 - (iv) an interim injunction granted under section 545 of the Fair Work Act so far as it relates to conduct or proposed conduct that could be the subject of an injunction or order under a provision of the Fair Work Act mentioned in subparagraphs (i) to (iii); or
 - (v) an order made under section 23 (which deals with contraventions of the employee associations provisions); or
 - (vi) an order made under subsection 131(2) (which deals with contraventions of the withdrawal from amalgamation provisions).

- (1A) The General Manager may apply to the Federal Court for an order cancelling the registration of an organisation on the ground that the organisation has failed to comply with an order of the Federal Court made under subsection 336(5) in relation to the organisation.

Note: Section 336 deals with the situation where the General Manager is satisfied, after an investigation, that a reporting unit of an organisation has contravened Part 3 of Chapter 8, or guidelines or rules relating to financial matters.

- (2) An organisation in relation to which an application is made under subsection (1) or (1A) must be given an opportunity of being heard by the Court.
- (3) If the Court:

Section 28

- (a) finds that a ground for cancellation set out in the application has been established; and
 - (b) does not consider that it would be unjust to do so having regard to the degree of gravity of the matters constituting the ground and the action (if any) that has been taken by or against the organisation in relation to the matters;
- the Court must, subject to subsection (4) and section 29, cancel the registration of the organisation.
- (4) If:
- (a) the Court finds that a ground for cancellation set out in the application has been established; and
 - (b) that finding is made, wholly or mainly, because of the conduct of a particular section or class of members of the organisation;
- the Court may, if it considers it just to do so, instead of cancelling the registration of the organisation under subsection (3), by order:
- (c) determine alterations of the eligibility rules of the organisation so as to exclude from eligibility for membership of the organisation persons belonging to the section or class; or
 - (d) where persons belonging to the section or class are eligible for membership under an agreement of the kind referred to in section 151—declare that the persons are excluded from eligibility for membership in spite of anything in the agreement.
- (5) If the Court cancels the registration of an organisation, the Court may direct that an application by the former organisation to be registered as an organisation is not to be dealt with under this Act before the end of a specified period.
- (6) An alteration of rules determined by order under subsection (4) takes effect on the date of the order or on such other day as is specified in the order.
- (7) A finding of fact in proceedings:
- (a) under section 23 or subsection 131(2) of this Act; or

Section 29

- (b) under Division 4 of Part 3-3 or Part 4-1 of the Fair Work Act; or
 - (c) under the Fair Work Act in relation to a contravention of Part 3-1 of that Act;
- is admissible as prima facie evidence of that fact in an application made on a ground specified in paragraph (1)(d).

29 Orders where cancellation of registration deferred

- (1) If the Federal Court finds that a ground of an application under subsection 28(1) or (1A) has been established, the Court may, if it considers it just to do so, instead of cancelling the registration of the organisation concerned under subsection 28(3) or making an order under subsection 28(4), exercise one or more of the powers set out in subsection (2) of this section.
- (2) The powers that may be exercised by the Court, by order, under subsection (1) are as follows:
 - (a) the power to suspend, to the extent specified in the order, any of the rights, privileges or capacities of the organisation or of all or any of its members, as such members, under this Act, the Fair Work Act or any other Act, under modern awards or orders made under this Act, the Fair Work Act or any other Act or under enterprise agreements;
 - (b) the power to give directions as to the exercise of any rights, privileges or capacities that have been suspended;
 - (c) the power to make provision restricting the use of the funds or property of the organisation or a branch of the organisation, and for the control of the funds or property for the purpose of ensuring observance of the restrictions.
- (3) If the Court exercises a power set out in subsection (2), it must defer the determination of the question whether to cancel the registration of the organisation concerned until:
 - (a) the orders made in the exercise of the power cease to be in force; or
 - (b) on application by a party to the proceeding, the Court considers that it is just to determine the question, having regard to any evidence given relating to the observance or non-observance of any order and to any other relevant circumstance; whichever is earlier.

- (4) An order made in the exercise of a power set out in subsection (2) has effect in spite of anything in the rules of the organisation concerned or a branch of the organisation.
- (5) An order made in the exercise of a power set out in subsection (2):
 - (a) may be revoked by the Court, by order, on application by a party to the proceeding concerned; and
 - (b) unless sooner revoked, ceases to be in force:
 - (i) 6 months after it came into force; or
 - (ii) such longer period after it came into force as is ordered by the Court on application by a party to the proceeding made while the order remains in force.

30 Cancellation of registration on technical grounds etc.

- (1) The FWC may cancel the registration of an organisation:
 - (a) on application by the organisation made under the regulations; or
 - (b) on application by an organisation or person interested or by the Minister, if the FWC has satisfied itself, as prescribed, that the organisation:
 - (i) was registered by mistake; or
 - (ii) is no longer effectively representative of the members who are employers or employees, as the case requires; or
 - (iii) is not free from control by, or improper influence from, a person or body referred to in paragraph 19(1)(b) or 20(1)(b), as the case requires; or
 - (iv) subject to subsection (6), if the organisation is an enterprise association—the enterprise to which it relates has ceased to exist; or
 - (c) on the FWC's own motion, if:

Section 30

- (i) the FWC has satisfied itself, as prescribed, that the organisation is defunct; or
 - (ii) the organisation is an organisation of employees, other than an enterprise association, and has fewer than 50 members who are employees; or
 - (iii) the organisation is an enterprise association and has fewer than 20 members who are employees; or
 - (iv) the organisation is an organisation of employers and the members who are employers have, in the aggregate, throughout the 6 months before the application, not employed on an average taken per month at least 50 employees; or
 - (v) the organisation is not, or is no longer, a federally registrable association.
- (2) Before the FWC cancels the registration of an organisation under:
 - (a) paragraph (1)(b) on application by a person interested or by the Minister; or
 - (b) paragraph (1)(c);the FWC must give the organisation an opportunity to be heard.
- (3) The FWC may also cancel the registration of an organisation if:
 - (a) the FWC is satisfied that the organisation has breached an undertaking referred to in subsection 19(2); and
 - (b) the FWC does not consider it appropriate to amend the eligibility rules of the organisation under section 157.
- (4) A cancellation under subsection (3) may be made:
 - (a) on application by an organisation or person interested; or

Section 152

- (9) If, after considering any such submissions and, in the case of an application under paragraph (8)(b), the matters raised by the applicant, the FWC is satisfied that the agreement is no longer operating for such a purpose, the FWC may, by order, terminate the agreement.

- (3) An order made under subsection (1) has effect despite anything in the rules of the organisation or State union who are the parties to the agreement.

154 Termination of section 152 agreement

- (1) If an organisation and a State union agree, in writing, to terminate an agreement made under section 152 (a section 152 agreement), the termination has no effect unless the parties apply to the Federal Court for approval under this section and the Court gives its approval.
- (2) The Court must not approve the termination unless:

Subdivision C—Miscellaneous

155 Exercise of the FWC’s powers under this Division

The powers of the FWC under this Division are exercisable only by the President, a Vice President or a Deputy President.

Division 5—Alteration of rules and evidence of rules

156 General Manager may determine alterations of rules

- (1) Where the rules of an organisation do not, in the General Manager's opinion, make provision required by this Act, the General Manager may, by instrument, after giving the organisation an opportunity, as prescribed, to be heard on the matter, determine such alterations of the rules as are, in the General Manager's opinion, necessary to bring them into conformity with this Act.
- (2) Alterations determined under subsection (1) take effect on the date of the instrument.

157 FWC may determine alteration of rules where there has been a breach of an undertaking

- (1) If:
 - (a) in the course of an organisation being registered under section 19, an undertaking was given under subsection 19(2) to avoid demarcation disputes that might otherwise arise from an overlap between its eligibility rules and the eligibility rules of another organisation; and
 - (b) the first-mentioned organisation has breached the undertaking;the FWC may, by instrument, determine such alterations of the rules of the organisation as are, in the FWC's opinion, necessary to remove the overlap.
- (2) The FWC must give the organisation and the other organisation an opportunity, as prescribed, to be heard on the matter.
- (3) Alterations determined under subsection (1) take effect on the date of the instrument.

Section 158

158 Change of name or alteration of eligibility rules of organisation

- (1) A change in the name of an organisation, or an alteration of the eligibility rules of an organisation, does not take effect unless:
 - (a) in the case of a change in the name of the organisation—the FWC consents to the change under this section; or
 - (b) in the case of an alteration of the eligibility rules of the organisation:
 - (i) the FWC consents to the alteration under this section; or
 - (ii) the General Manager consents to the alteration under section 158A.
- (2) The FWC may consent to a change or alteration in whole or part, but must not consent unless the FWC is satisfied that the change or alteration has been made under the rules of the organisation.
- (3) The FWC must not consent to a change in the name of an organisation unless the FWC is satisfied that the proposed new name of the organisation:
 - (a) is not the same as the name of another organisation; and
 - (b) is not so similar to the name of another organisation as to be likely to cause confusion.
- (4) The FWC must not consent to an alteration of the eligibility rules of an organisation if, in relation to persons who would be eligible for membership because of the alteration, there is, in the opinion of the FWC, another organisation:
 - (a) to which those persons could more conveniently belong; and
 - (b) that would more effectively represent those members.
- (5) However, subsection (4) does not apply if the FWC accepts an undertaking from the organisation seeking the alteration that the FWC considers appropriate to avoid demarcation disputes that might otherwise arise from an overlap between the eligibility rules of that organisation and the eligibility rules of the other organisation.

- (6) The FWC may refuse to consent to an alteration of the eligibility rules of an organisation if satisfied that the alteration would contravene an agreement or understanding to which the organisation is a party and that deals with the organisation's right to represent under this Act and the Fair Work Act the industrial interests of a particular class or group of persons.
- (7) The FWC may also refuse to consent to an alteration of the eligibility rules of an organisation if it:
 - (a) is satisfied that the alteration would change the effect of any order made by the FWC under section 133 about the right of the organisation to represent under this Act and the Fair Work Act the industrial interests of a particular class or group of employees; and
 - (b) considers that such a change would give rise to a serious risk of a demarcation dispute which would prevent, obstruct or restrict the performance of work in an industry, or harm the business of an employer.
- (8) Subsections (6) and (7) do not limit the grounds on which the FWC may refuse to consent to an alteration of the eligibility rules of an organisation.
- (9) Where the FWC consents, under subsection (1), to a change or alteration, the change or alteration takes effect on:
 - (a) where a date is specified in the consent—that date; or
 - (b) in any other case—the day of the consent.

- (a) that the alteration has been made under the rules of the organisation; and
 - (b) that the organisation is a federal counterpart of the association; and
 - (c) that the alteration will not extend the eligibility rules of the organisation beyond those of the association; and
 - (d) that the alteration will not apply outside the limits of the State or Territory for which the association is registered; and
 - (e) as to such other matters (if any) as are prescribed by the regulations.

Note: If the General Manager consents to the alteration, the FWC may make orders that reflect State representation orders (see section 137F).

- (2) The application must not be made before 1 January 2011, or such later day as the Minister declares in writing.
- (3) A declaration made under subsection (2) is a legislative instrument, but section 42 (disallowance) of the Legislation Act 2003 does not apply to the declaration.
- (4) If the General Manager consents, under subsection (1), to an alteration, the alteration takes effect on:
- (a) if a day is specified in the consent—that day; or
 - (b) in any other case—the day of the consent.

159 Alteration of other rules of organisation

- (1) An alteration of the rules (other than the eligibility rules) of an organisation does not take effect unless particulars of the alteration have been lodged with the FWC and the General Manager has certified that, in his or her opinion, the alteration:

- (a) complies with, and is not contrary to, this Act, the Fair Work Act, modern awards and enterprise agreements; and
 - (b) is not otherwise contrary to law; and

Employee organisations

- (1) Subject to any modern award or order of the FWC, a person who is eligible to become a member of an organisation of employees under the eligibility rules of the organisation that relate to the occupations in which, or the industry or enterprise in relation to which, members are to be employed is, unless of general bad character, entitled, subject to payment of any amount properly payable in relation to membership:
 - (a) to be admitted as a member of the organisation; and
 - (b) to remain a member so long as the person complies with the rules of the organisation.
- Note 1: Rules of an organisation must provide for the circumstances in which a person ceases to be a member of an organisation (see subparagraph 141(1)(b)(vii)).
- Note 2: If a member fails to pay his or her membership dues for 24 months, this may result in the person ceasing to be a member, regardless of the rules of the organisation (see section 172).
- Note 3: See also section 168, which deals with a special case of entitlement to membership (person treated as having been a member).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not entitle a person to remain a member of an organisation if the person ceases to be eligible to become a member and the rules of the organisation do not permit the person to remain a member.
 - (3) A person who is qualified to be employed in a particular occupation, and seeks to be employed in the occupation:
 - (a) is taken to be an employee for the purposes of this section; and
 - (b) in spite of anything in the rules of the organisation, is not to be treated as not being eligible for membership of an organisation merely because the person has never been employed in the occupation.

Section 167

Employer organisations

- (4) Subject to subsection (5) and to any modern award or order of the FWC, an employer who is eligible to become a member of an organisation of employers is entitled, subject to payment of any amount properly payable in relation to membership:
 - (a) to be admitted as a member of the organisation; and
 - (b) to remain a member so long as the employer complies with the rules of the organisation.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not entitle an employer:
 - (a) to become a member of an organisation if the employer is:
 - (i) a natural person who is of general bad character; or
 - (ii) a body corporate whose constituent documents make provisions inconsistent with the purposes for which the organisation was formed; or
 - (b) to remain a member of an organisation if the employer ceases to be eligible to become a member and the rules of the organisation do not permit the employer to remain a member.

This section overrides inconsistent rules

- (6) Subsections (1) and (4) have effect in spite of anything in the rules of the organisation concerned, except to the extent that they expressly require compliance with those rules.

Effect of orders

- (4) On the making of an order as mentioned in paragraph (3)(a), or as otherwise specified in the order, the person specified in the order becomes, by force of this section, a member of the organisation concerned.
- (5) Where:

Section 168

- (a) an order is made as mentioned in paragraph (3)(b); and
 - (b) the person specified in the order pays to the organisation concerned any amount that the person would have been liable to pay to the organisation if the person had been a member of the organisation during the period specified in the order;
- the person is taken to have been a member of the organisation during the period specified in the order.

the person is entitled to be admitted to membership and treated by the organisation and its members as though the person had been a member during the whole of the time when the person acted as, and was treated by the organisation as, a member and during the whole of the time from the time of the person's application to the time of the person's admission.
- (2) Where a question arises as to the entitlement under this section of a person to be admitted as a member and to be treated as though the person had been a member during the times referred to in subsection (1):

Section 169

- (a) the person; or
- (b) the organisation;

may apply to the Federal Court for a declaration as to the entitlement of the person under this section.

Note: This section is a civil penalty provision (see section 305).

Section 170

170 Rectification of register of members

The Federal Court may at any time, in a proceeding under this Act or the Fair Work Act, order such rectifications of the register of members of an organisation as it considers necessary.

Part 3—Termination of membership

171 Federal Court may order that persons cease to be members of organisations

The Federal Court may, on the application of an organisation, order that a person's membership of that organisation or another organisation is to cease from a day, and for a period, specified in the order.

171A Cessation of membership if member is not an employee etc.

- (1) If a person is a member of an organisation and the person is not, or is no longer:
 - (a) if the organisation is an association of employers—a person of a kind mentioned in paragraph 18A(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d); or
 - (b) if the organisation is an association of employees—a person of a kind mentioned in paragraph 18B(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d); or
 - (c) if the organisation is an enterprise association—a person of a kind mentioned in paragraph 18C(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d);the person's membership of the organisation immediately ceases.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect despite anything in the rules of the organisation.

172 Non-financial members to be removed from the register

- (1) If:
 - (a) the rules of an organisation require a member to pay dues in relation to the person's membership of the organisation; and
 - (b) the member has not paid the amount; and
 - (c) a continuous period of 24 months has elapsed since the amount became payable; and
 - (d) the member's name has not been removed from the register kept by the organisation under paragraph 230(1)(a);

Section 173

the organisation must remove the name and postal address of the member from the register within 12 months after the end of the 24 month period.

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 305).

- (2) In calculating a period for the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), any period in relation to which the member was not required by the rules of the organisation to pay the dues is to be disregarded.
- (3) A person whose name is removed from the register under this section ceases to be a member of the organisation on the day his or her name is removed. This subsection has effect in spite of anything in the rules of the organisation.

Note: A non-financial member's membership might cease and his or her name be removed from the register earlier than is provided for by this section if the organisation's own rules provide for this to happen.

173 No entrance fee if person re-joins within 6 months

- (1) If:
 - (a) a person applies for membership of an organisation within 6 months after the person's membership has ceased under section 172; and
 - (b) the application is accepted by the organisation;the organisation must not require the person to pay any fee associated with a new membership (other than membership dues) in relation to the membership for which the person has applied.
- (2) This section is not to be taken to prevent an organisation requiring (whether by means of its rules or otherwise) payment of outstanding dues in order for a person to maintain continuity of financial membership.

174 Resignation from membership

- (1) A member of an organisation may resign from membership by written notice addressed and delivered to a person designated for the purpose in the rules of the organisation or a branch of the organisation.

Section 174

Note: The notice of resignation can be given electronically if the organisation's rules allow for this (see section 9 of the Electronic Transactions Act 1999).

- (2) A notice of resignation from membership of an organisation takes effect:
- (a) where the member ceases to be eligible to become a member of the organisation:
 - (i) on the day on which the notice is received by the organisation; or
 - (ii) on the day specified in the notice, which is a day not earlier than the day when the member ceases to be eligible to become a member;whichever is later; or
 - (b) in any other case:
 - (i) at the end of 2 weeks, or such shorter period as is specified in the rules of the organisation, after the notice is received by the organisation; or
 - (ii) on the day specified in the notice;whichever is later.
- (3) Any dues payable but not paid by a former member of an organisation, in relation to a period before the member's resignation from the organisation took effect, may be sued for and recovered in the name of the organisation, in a court of competent jurisdiction, as a debt due to the organisation.
- (4) A notice delivered to the person mentioned in subsection (1) is taken to have been received by the organisation when it was delivered.
- (5) A notice of resignation that has been received by the organisation is not invalid because it was not addressed and delivered in accordance with subsection (1).

Section 174

- (6) A resignation from membership of an organisation is valid even if it is not effected in accordance with this section if the member is informed in writing by or on behalf of the organisation that the resignation has been accepted.

Note: Regulations may require employers who offer payroll deduction facilities to inform employees that cessation of payroll deduction by an employee does not constitute resignation (see section 359).

Part 4—False information, disputes and arrears of dues

175 False representation as to membership of organisation

A person must not, in an application made under this Act or the Fair Work Act, make a statement about the person's membership of an organisation if the person knows, or is reckless as to whether, the statement is false or misleading.

Note: This section is a civil penalty provision (see section 305).

176 False representation about resignation from organisation

A person (the first person) must not provide information about resignation from an organisation to a member, or a person eligible to become a member, of the organisation if the person knows, or is reckless as to whether, the information is false or misleading.

Note: This section is a civil penalty provision (see section 305).

177 Disputes between organisations and members

- (1) A dispute between an organisation and any of its members is to be decided under the rules of the organisation.
- (2) Any fine, fee, levy or dues payable to an organisation by a member in relation to a period after the organisation was registered may be sued for and recovered, in the name of the organisation, as a debt due to the organisation, in a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (3) A court of competent jurisdiction may, on application brought in the name of an organisation, order the payment by a member of any contribution (not exceeding $20) to a penalty incurred or money payable by the organisation under a modern award, order or enterprise agreement.

178 Recovery of arrears

- (1) In spite of subsection 177(2), legal proceedings for the recovery of an amount payable by a person in relation to the person's membership of an organisation must not be commenced after the end of the period of 12 months starting on the day on which the amount became payable.
- (2) The amount ceases to be payable at the end of the period if legal proceedings to recover the amount have not been commenced by then.

179 Liability for arrears

- (1) Where a person has ceased to be eligible to become a member of an organisation and that person has not actively participated in the affairs of the organisation since that time, those circumstances are a defence to an action by the organisation for arrears of dues payable from the time when the person ceased to be so eligible.
- (2) Where such a defence is successful, that person is taken to have ceased to be a member from the time that the person ceased to be so eligible.

Part 5—Conscientious objection to membership

180 Conscientious objection to membership of organisations

- (1) Where a natural person:
 - (a) on application made to the General Manager, satisfies the General Manager:
 - (i) in the case of a person who is an employer or is otherwise eligible to join an organisation of employers—that the person’s conscientious beliefs do not allow the person to be a member of an association of the kind described in paragraph 18(a); or
 - (ii) in the case of a person who is an employee or is otherwise eligible to join an organisation of employees—that the person’s conscientious beliefs do not allow the person to be a member of an association of the kind described in paragraph 18(b) or (c); and
 - (b) pays the prescribed fee to the General Manager;the General Manager must issue to the person a certificate to that effect in the prescribed form.
- (2) An appeal does not lie to the FWC under section 604 of the Fair Work Act against a decision of the General Manager to issue a certificate under subsection (1).
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), a certificate under subsection (1) remains in force for the period (not exceeding 12 months) specified in the certificate, but may, as prescribed, be renewed from time to time by the General Manager for such period (not exceeding 12 months) as the General Manager considers appropriate.
- (4) Where:
 - (a) the General Manager becomes aware of a matter that was not known to the General Manager when a certificate was issued by the General Manager to a person under subsection (1); and

Section 180

- (b) if the General Manager had been aware of the matter when the application for the certificate was being considered, the General Manager would not have issued the certificate;
the General Manager may, after giving the person an opportunity, as prescribed, to show cause why the certificate should not be revoked, revoke the certificate.
- (6) In this section:
- appropriate organisation, in relation to a person who has made an application under subsection (1), means the organisation that, in the opinion of the General Manager dealing with the application, would, but for the person's conscientious beliefs, be the appropriate organisation for the person to join having regard to:
- (a) in the case of a person who is an employer—the industry in relation to which the person is an employer; or
 - (b) in the case of a person who is otherwise eligible to join an organisation of employers—the business carried on by the person; or
 - (c) in the case of a person who is an employee—the past employment (if any), and the future prospects of employment, of the person; or
 - (d) in the case of a person who is otherwise eligible to join an organisation of employees—the work done by the person or the enterprise in which the person works.

conscientious beliefs means any conscientious beliefs, whether the grounds for the beliefs are or are not of a religious character and whether the beliefs are or are not part of the doctrine of any religion.

prescribed fee, in relation to a person who has made an application under subsection (1), means a fee equal to the annual subscription that would be payable by the person if the person were a member of the appropriate organisation.

Chapter 7—Democratic control

Part 1—Simplified outline of Chapter

181 Simplified outline

This Chapter deals with elections for positions in organisations. It does not deal with other kinds of ballots (for example, amalgamation and disamalgamation ballots, which are dealt with in Chapter 3).

Part 2 sets out the rules for the conduct of elections. Elections for office must generally be conducted by the AEC. This Part also requires the AEC to conduct elections for some positions that are not offices, if the organisation concerned requests the AEC to do so.

Part 3 provides for inquiries by the Federal Court into elections for office.

Part 4 sets out the circumstances in which people are disqualified from holding, or being elected to hold, office in organisations.

Part 2—Conduct of elections for office and other positions

182 Conduct by AEC

Elections for office

- (1) Each election for an office in an organisation, or branch of an organisation, must be conducted by the AEC. The expenses of conducting such an election are to be borne by the Commonwealth.

Note: For the meaning of office, see section 9.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to an election for an office in an organisation or branch while an exemption granted to the organisation or branch, as the case may be, under section 186 is in force in relation to elections in the organisation or branch or an election for the particular office.

Elections for other positions

- (3) If an organisation or branch of an organisation has made a request under section 187 in relation to an election for a position other than an office, the AEC must conduct the election.

- (2) An application may not be made by a committee of management of an organisation or branch of an organisation unless the committee of management:

- (4) Where an application has been made under subsection (1), the General Manager must cause a notice setting out details of the application to be published, as prescribed, for the purpose of bringing the notice to the attention of members of the organisation or branch concerned.
- (5) Where the rules of an organisation require an office to be filled by an election by the members, or by some of the members, of a single branch of the organisation, an election to fill the office is taken to be an election for the branch.

184 Objections to application to conduct elections for office

- (1) Objection may be made to an application under subsection 183(1) by a member of the organisation or branch of the organisation in relation to which the application was made.

- (b) asks for or obtains, or offers or agrees to ask for or obtain, any property or benefit of any kind (whether for that person or another person), on the understanding that the lodging of an objection under subsection 184(1) will be influenced or affected in any way.

Maximum penalty: 30 penalty units.

186 General Manager may permit organisation or branch to conduct its elections for office

- (1) Where an application in relation to an organisation or branch has been lodged under subsection 183(1) and, after any objections duly made have been heard, the General Manager is satisfied:
 - (a) that the rules of the organisation or branch comply with the requirements of this Act relating to the conduct of elections for office; and
 - (b) that, if the organisation or branch is exempted from subsection 182(1), the elections for the organisation or branch, or the election for the particular office, as the case may be, will be conducted:

188 Declaration envelopes etc. to be used for postal ballots

If the rules of an organisation provide for elections for office by postal ballot, a vote in the election cannot be counted unless the ballot paper on which it is recorded is returned as follows:

- (2) The prescribed information must be lodged before the prescribed day or such later day as the General Manager allows.

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 305).

- (3) If:
 - (a) the prescribed information is lodged with the FWC by the organisation or branch (whether or not before the prescribed day or the later day allowed by the General Manager); and
 - (b) the General Manager is satisfied that an election is required to be held under the rules of the organisation or branch; and
 - (c) if the election is not an election for an office—the organisation or branch has made a request under section 187;the General Manager must arrange for the conduct of the election by the AEC.

190 Organisation or branch must not assist one candidate over another

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

191 Organisation to provide returning officer with copy of register

- (1) A person (the returning officer) conducting an election under this Part for an office or other position in an organisation, or branch of an organisation, may give a written request to an officer or employee of the organisation or branch to make available the register of members, or part of the register, kept by the organisation under section 230, to the returning officer for the purposes of the ballot.

- (2) An officer or employee of the organisation or branch commits an offence if he or she fails to comply with a request under subsection (1).

Maximum penalty: 30 penalty units.

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the officer or employee complied with the request as promptly as he or she was capable.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter mentioned in subsection (3).

- (4) An offence against subsection (2) is an offence of strict liability.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

- (1) An officer of an organisation or a branch must exercise his or her powers and discharge his or her duties with the degree of care and diligence that a reasonable person would exercise if he or she:
- (a) were an officer of an organisation or a branch in the organisation's circumstances; and
 - (b) occupied the office held by, and had the same responsibilities within the organisation or a branch as, the officer.

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 305).

- (2) An officer of an organisation or a branch who makes a judgment to take or not take action in respect of a matter relevant to the operations of the organisation or branch is taken to meet the requirements of subsection (1), and their equivalent duties at common law and in equity, in respect of the judgment if he or she:
- (a) makes the judgment in good faith for a proper purpose; and
 - (b) does not have a material personal interest in the subject matter of the judgment; and
 - (c) informs himself or herself about the subject matter of the judgment to the extent he or she reasonably believes to be appropriate; and
 - (d) rationally believes that the judgment is in the best interests of the organisation.

The officer's belief that the judgment is in the best interests of the organisation is a rational one unless the belief is one that no reasonable person in his or her position would hold.

Note: This subsection only operates in relation to duties under this section and their equivalents at common law or in equity (including the duty of care that arises under the common law principles governing liability for negligence)—it does not operate in relation to duties under any other provision of this Act or under any other laws.

Section 286

286 Good faith—civil obligations

- (1) An officer of an organisation or a branch must exercise his or her powers and discharge his or her duties:

- (2) A person who is involved in a contravention of subsection (1) contravenes this subsection.

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 305).

- (2) A person who is involved in a contravention of subsection (1) contravenes this subsection.

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 305).

289 Effect of ratification by members

- (1) If the members of an organisation ratify or approve a contravention of section 285, 286, 287 or 288, the ratification or approval:
- (a) does not prevent the commencement of proceedings for a contravention of the section; and
 - (b) does not have the effect that proceedings brought for a contravention of the section must be determined in favour of the defendant.
- (2) If members of an organisation ratify or approve a contravention of section 285, 286, 287 or 288, the Federal Court may take the ratification or approval into account in deciding what order or orders to make under section 306, 307 or 308 in proceedings brought for a contravention of the section. In doing this, it must have regard to:
- (a) how well-informed about the conduct the members were when deciding whether to ratify or approve the contravention; and
 - (b) whether the members who ratified or approved the contravention were acting for proper purposes.

290 Compliance with statutory duties

An officer or employee does not contravene section 286, 287 or 288 by doing an act that another provision of this Act or the Fair Work Act requires the officer or employee to do.

291 Interaction of sections 285 to 289 with other laws etc.

Sections 285 to 289:

- (a) have effect in addition to, and not in derogation of, any rule of law relating to the duty or liability of a person because of his or her office or employment in relation to an organisation or a branch; and

Section 292

- (b) do not prevent the commencement of proceedings for a breach of duty or in respect of a liability referred to in paragraph (a).

This section does not apply to subsection 285(2) to the extent to which it operates on the duties at common law and in equity that are equivalent to the requirements of subsection 285(1).

292 Reliance on information or advice provided by others

If:

- (a) an officer relies on information, or professional or expert advice, given or prepared by:

 - (ii) after making proper inquiry if the circumstances indicated the need for inquiry; and
- (c) the reasonableness of the officer's reliance on the information or advice arises in proceedings brought to determine whether an officer has performed a duty under this Part or an equivalent duty at common law or in equity;

the officer's reliance on the information or advice is taken to be reasonable unless the contrary is proved.

293 Responsibility for actions of other person

- (1) If the officers of an organisation or a branch delegate a power under its rules, each of those officers is responsible for the exercise of the power by the person to whom the power was delegated as if the power had been exercised by the officer.
- (2) An officer is not responsible under subsection (1) if:
 - (a) the officer believed on reasonable grounds at all times that the person to whom the power was delegated would exercise the power in conformity with the duties imposed on officers of the organisation or the branch by this Act or the Fair Work Act; and
 - (b) the officer believed:
 - (i) on reasonable grounds; and
 - (ii) in good faith; and
 - (iii) after making proper inquiry if the circumstances indicated the need for inquiry;that the person to whom the power was delegated was reliable and competent in relation to the power delegated.

308 Other orders

- (1) The Federal Court may make such other orders as the Court considers appropriate in all the circumstances of the case.

- (b) does not prevent proceedings from being instituted in respect of such a duty or in respect of such a liability.

310 Who may apply for an order

Application by General Manager

312 Criminal proceedings during civil proceedings

- (1) Proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order against a person or organisation are stayed if:
 - (a) criminal proceedings are started or have already been started against the person or organisation for an offence; and
 - (b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.
- (2) The proceedings for the order may be resumed if the person or organisation is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise, the proceedings for the order are dismissed.

313 Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings

Criminal proceedings may be started against a person or organisation for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct constituting a contravention of a civil penalty provision regardless of whether an order under this Part has been made against the person or organisation.

314 Evidence given in proceedings for penalty not admissible in criminal proceedings

Evidence of information given or evidence of production of documents by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual if:

- (a) the individual previously gave the evidence or produced the documents in proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order against the individual for a contravention of a civil penalty provision (whether or not the order was made); and

However, this does not apply to a criminal proceeding in respect of the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the pecuniary penalty order.

(1) In this section:

eligible proceedings:

 - (i) the person or organisation has acted honestly; and
 - (ii) having regard to all the circumstances of the case, the person or organisation ought fairly to be excused for the contravention;

the Court may relieve the person or organisation either wholly or partly from a liability to which the person or organisation would otherwise be subject, or that might otherwise be imposed on the person or organisation, because of the contravention.

(3) If a person or organisation thinks that eligible proceedings will or may be begun against them, they may apply to the Federal Court for relief.

(4) On an application under subsection (3), the Court may grant relief under subsection (2) as if the eligible proceedings had been begun in the Court.

316 Power to grant relief

(1) If:

- (a) civil proceedings are brought against an officer of an organisation for negligence, default, breach of trust or breach of duty in a capacity as such an officer; and

- (b) in the proceedings it appears to the court before which the proceedings are taken that:
- (i) the officer is or may be liable in respect of the negligence, default or breach; and
 - (ii) the officer has acted honestly; and
 - (iii) having regard to all the circumstances of the case (including those connected with the officer's appointment), the officer ought fairly to be excused for the negligence, default or breach;
- the court may relieve the officer either wholly or partly from liability on the terms that the court thinks appropriate.
- (2) An officer of an organisation who has reason to apprehend that a claim will or might be made against him or her for negligence, default, breach of trust or breach of duty in a capacity as such an officer may apply to the Federal Court for relief. On the application, the Court has the same power to relieve the officer as it would have had under subsection (1) if it had been a court before which proceedings against the officer for negligence, default, breach of trust or breach of duty had been brought.

 - (a) the provisions of this section have not been complied with; or
 - (b) the amalgamation would do substantial injustice to the members of the organisation or associated body.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe the amendment to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, the amendment is incorporated into the compiled law and the abbreviation “(md)” added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the abbreviation “(md not incorp)” is added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.
